

CHARLTON LOCKE, BSc, DC

HIGHLIGHTS

- Since 1990, have attended 317 conferences, seminars and workshops totalling over 2400 contact hours. Some of these include:
 - (a) three year, 360 hour accredited fellowship program in motor vehicle injury rehabilitation
 - (b) 18 of 21 sessions of a three year, 300 hour accredited fellowship program in sports injuries
 - (c) various functional abilities evaluation workshops, seminars and conferences
 - (d) 100 hour accredited certificate program in acupuncture
 - (e) regularly attend update seminars in above four areas of practice
- Edited the official OCA/CMCC Bill 164 Conference Notes and Guidelines.
- Assessed the quality of over 80 Chiropractic Clinics and Rehabilitation Clinics from 1986 to 1996.

POSITIONS HELD

Feb. 1995 – Present	Canadian Rehabilitation Institute, DAC/IE Assessor, President
May 2006 – Present	AssessMed, IE Assessor
June 1994 – Present	Birchmount Chiropractic Clinic, Chiropractor (private practice)
Aug. 1993 – 2005	Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, Faculty Member <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Integrated Chiropractic Techniques (1995-05)- Orthopaedics and Rheumatology (1994-00)- Differential Diagnosis (1995-00)- Chiropractic Principles (1995-00)- Clinical Management (1993-94)- Gross Human Anatomy (tutored for 1 year in Anatomy lab using cadavers/wet specimens)
1990 – Present	Presenter/Lecturer to various organizations, associations, businesses and interest groups
Mar 1995 – Aug 1996	Canadian Institute of Biomechanics, Lecturer

EDUCATION

1994 – 1996	Certified Chiropractic Rehabilitation Doctor, Chiropractic Rehabilitation Certification Board
1990 – 1994	Doctor of Chiropractic, Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College <ul style="list-style-type: none">- 4,338 hours over 4 years, full time
1986 – 1990	Bachelor of Science, University of Toronto <ul style="list-style-type: none">Won 1986 University of Toronto Chemistry Award

Certificates

Standardized Test of Fitness Appraiser (S.T.F.A.), Ontario Association of Sport and Exercise Sciences (at York University)
Acupuncture, Medicina Alternativa
Acupuncture, Acupuncture Council of Ontario
Orthotics, Canadian Institute of Biomechanics

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Member, College of Chiropractors of Ontario
Member, Acupuncture Council of Ontario
Member, Canadian Chiropractic Association
Member, Ontario Chiropractic Association
Member, Canadian Chiropractic Protective Association
Member, Governors' Club
Member, Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College
Member, American Chiropractic Rehabilitation Board

SPECIAL INTERESTS

- Clinical diagnosis and management of complex cases including as they relate to the concepts of intervention effectiveness, reasonable and necessary, and maximum therapeutic benefit.
- Lead author on research into a "Gold Standard" Functional Abilities/Capacities Evaluation has been well received, including at the 1996 Canadian Society of Medical Evaluators Conference on the Role of Technology in Disability Evaluations. Lead investigator on CRI's FAE research project that has been evaluated at Universities of Guelph, Waterloo and Windsor, all with positive results.
- Sole author of Research into Surface EMG (refuting reasonableness and necessity), accepted by OIC arbitrator and published/presented at international multi-disciplinary conference in Vancouver, BC.