

MICHELLE MOHABIR

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

- . Consistent physical and psychosocial assessments
- . Pre-operative and post-operative care of patients
- . Competent performance of basic and advanced nursing skills; i.e. TPN, intravenous therapy, tracheotomy care, simple & complex dressings, drug administration, and preparation for tests and procedures
- . Self-directed and able to plan and set priorities for complex assignments
- . Participates as a co-operative team member
- . Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- . Accurate reporting and documentation
- . Adheres to CNO and agency policies
- . Continuing education classes in paediatric sedation, paediatric CPR and advanced life support, ECG's, epidurals and PCA's
- . Commitment to continuing education i.e. attended conferences and workshops
- . Leadership and preceptorship skills

EDUCATION

2000 – 2003

Humber College of Applied Arts and Technology

Registered Nurse Diploma

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

2007 – Present Registered Nurses' Association of Ontario

2003 – Present College of Nurses of Ontario Registration

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2007 - Present

Assessmed
Registered Nurse
FME's & IME's for various insurance companies

2003 - Present

Hospital for Sick Children
Registered Nurse: 5C Neuroscience Unit
Coordination and collaboration of care for children with issues in related fields such as Trauma, Neurosurgery, Neurology, Ophthalmology, Urology and Gynaecology

Updated May 2009

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST